Thanks- Rubin, Arturo, Sergio, Jose, Felix and Jesus...

Every week Rotarians enjoy a bountiful buffet as part of our regular meeting. Did you realize six Los Abrigados staff members are involved in creating our weekly meal? Arturo Gonzales, a two year Los Abrigados employee from Cottonwood, is a familiar face as he sets the tables each week. But there are five additional employees "behind the scenes" who make it happen and we thank them all for their dedicated service.

Did You Know?

- Renata Barnwell asks all interested Rotarians and spouses to sign-up for a free Pink Jeep Tour of Camp Soaring Eagle. Sign up for the September 5, 2009, 10-12 noon tour which will leave and end at Los Abrigados. Four seats remain and will be filled on a first come-first served basis.
- Rotarians participate in Sedona's Relay for Life Walk each year. This year the walk is scheduled for September 18; sign-up at next week's Rotary meeting. Each walker is asked to purchase a T shirt for $10 and obtain pledges for at least $25. Luminaries will be on sale at Tuesday's meeting.
- District Governor Jeanie Morgan visits Sedona's Rotary Clubs for a joint meeting on September 1, 2009. She meets with our Board members at 11 am that day.
- Say "HI" to the Cub greeter each week or you may have a "fine" moment later in the meeting.
- More than 80 "Mischievous Ones" drawing tickets have been purchased thus far. Ask your friends and family to buy a ticket and support Rotary's community service activities.
