Welcome Paul Harris Fellows...

All members of the Rotary Club of Sedona are working to attain or increase their membership in the Paul Harris Society. Membership signifies a RI contribution of at least $1,000, but most importantly it shows active support of Rotary's principles. Last week Merv Shapan, RI Chairman recognized Andrew Brearley as a multiple Paul Harris Fellow and welcomed Linda Wallace to Paul Harris Fellowship. Congratulations Andrew and Linda!

Did You Know?

- Drew Bailor is the Club's new Sargent-at-Arms. Happy Fining Drew!
- Kathy Gorchesky will coordinate the Club's new sponsorship of the Red Rock High School annual Career Day. Initiated last year, the Career Day allows Red Rock High School students to meet and question experts in various vocational and professional careers.
- The Board approved a $3 per quarter per member Rotary dues increase to fund the Club's new Administrative Data Base Program. This new program will automate our membership, attendance and activity data. Your Secretary THANKS YOU!
- There is still time to sign up for the Relay for Life Team. Help cancer research, join your fellow Rotarians and walk for an hour Sept. 18.
- Committee Chairs are asked to join the Board members for a special meeting with our District Governor, 11 am, September 1.
- Contact Gary Karademos if you are interested in attending the Rotary Leadership Institute in Prescott on September 12, 2009.
